Dear Sir/Madam

Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc Chapter 11 Case No 08-13555 (JMP) Claim 34469 Amount $15,200.00 OBJECTION TO THE OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS (LATE FILED CLAIMS)

I, Sarah M Filbee, of 107 Maze Hill London SE108XQ United Kingdom, hereby give notice that I OBJECT to the notice dated 13 September 2010 on the grounds that I have been unfairly disadvantaged compared to the then current employees of Lehman Brothers in London and that also during the month leading up to the Bar Date I gave birth and had an emergency caesarean for which I was in recovery.

- 1) The debt of $15,200 is deferred employment income. This sum relates to contingent stock awards from December 2003 every year through to and including December 2007, as part of the annual compensation award process. Please see documents already filed on www.lehman-docket.com. This debt should be entitled to priority reimbursement.

- 2) During the period of notice to make a claim I was giving birth (5 August 2009) and in hospital following a caesarean section operation. I had no time to read through the vast volumes of documentation which were delivered to me during this time.
- 3) In early September 2009 I became aware that the documents may apply to my situation, despite no assistance or guidance from any Lehman Brothers source. I note at this point that all current employees of Lehman Brothers International Europe were being given advice relating to what to file exactly. All ex-employees of Lehman Brothers were therefore severely disadvantaged at this time.
- 4) I decided to make a claim based on the 'heresay' of several employees in London, that this "might" apply to employment related income. I therefore posted my claim on Tuesday 15 September 2009. I was told by the Post Office employee who handled my letter that there was no method to guarantee delivery within a time frame, but that normal delivery times to New York were 3-4 Business Days. This would have been easily within the time frame stated by the Court. It is therefore entirely unfortunate and unexpected that my claim appears to have been not received at the offices until 23 September 2009. Please provide evidence that this claim was not received in the building of Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions on 22 September 2009.

Please note that I will be acting for myself and I will represent myself at the hearing on 27 October 2010 by telephone from the UK. I have attached to this letter a copy of my letter requesting permission from Judge James Peck in order to do so.

Please do not hesitate to call me on +44 208 8587189 should you wish to discuss this matter with me in advance of the Court Hearing.

Yours sincerely

2003 - 2005 LBSAP: Shares of common stock, which represent the principal portion (75% of your award), will be issued to you at the earlier of (1) the fifth anniversary of the grant date or (2) the end of the fiscal quarter one year following your termination date, provided you do not engage in Detrimental Activity through the share payment date. You may also be entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of the discount (based on the number of full years of service you complete after the grant date), provided you do not engage in Competitive Activity or Detrimental Activity through the share payment date.

2006 - 2007 LBSAP: Per the provisions of the program, as a result of your voluntary termination, you are not entitled to receive this award.

Dividend Reinvestment: Until your CSAs convert to common stock, if dividends are declared, you will receive dividend equivalents. Your dividend equivalents will be automatically reinvested as additional CSAs. The CSAs you receive as dividend equivalents will be subject to the same conditions as the underlying CSAs to which they relate. In the event the underlying CSAs are forfeited, the related dividend reinvested CSAs will also be forfeited.

Disposition of shares assumes a voluntary termination to a non-competitor on 12 March 2008.
